FAKHRUDDIN ALI AHMED,
President.

K. K. SUNDARAM,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Reasons for the enactment

The Tamil Nadu Occupants of Kudiyiruppu (Conferment of Ownership) Act, 1971 (40 of 1971) conferred ownership rights on agriculturists including agricultural labourers in kudiyiruppus, that is sites of dwelling houses and huts, under their occupation. It is now proposed to confer by legislation similar rights on rural artisans in occupation of kudiyiruppus. Where the superstructure on such a kudiyiruppu belongs to any person other than the occupant rural artisan, ownership rights in such superstructure too will vest in him. Where, in the opinion of the authorised officer, the kudiyiruppu is so located in the land of the land-owner that the vesting of the ownership right in respect of it in the rural artisan may militate against the convenient enjoyment of such land, the authorised officer may permit the owner of the land to provide an alternative site to the rural artisan. If any rural artisan fails or refuses to shift to the alternative site, he will not acquire ownership rights in the kudiyiruppu but can continue to occupy it without any threat of eviction.

The occupant rural artisans being generally poor, it may not be possible for them to pay for the acquisition of ownership rights in the kudiyiruppus; the Government of Tamil Nadu has, therefore, accepted the responsibility to pay the amount for the acquisition to the land-owners and other interested persons.

It is also proposed to enable the Government to acquire lands used for the common purposes by the occupants of kudiyiruppus so that these may continue to be used in the same way as before. The acquired lands will vest in the State and the payment of the necessary amount for their acquisition will be made by the Government.

This measure seeks to achieve the above objects.

The Committee constituted under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 3 of the Tamil Nadu State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1976 (41 of 1976) has been consulted before the enactment of this measure as a President's Act.
